2.1. People who wish to use the accommodation, common facilities and, where applicable, complimentary services detailed in these Terms and Conditions, must present their identification documents to be admitted and registered in the Hotel's records.

Once the person or persons have been registered, the Hotel will draw up a check-in document stating the name, category and Hotel registration number, identification number of the assigned accommodation, the number of people who will occupy it, arrival and departure dates and the meals that have been arranged and, when contracted directly, the price of the accommodation. This check-in document, completed in duplicate, must be signed by the Guest to formalise their admittance, once they have been informed of the existence of these Terms and Conditions and their rights and obligations. The original will be given to the Guest and the copy shall remain in the possession of the Hotel.
